There were four cases of intoxication in the city court this morning, all of the offenders being arrested Saturday night. Peter Hendrickson and Emil Maki from the "Hill" were arrested by Officers Faulkner and Hamel and each pleaded guilty to a first offense. Both will spend fifteen days in the county jail in default of payment of their fines. Officer Hamel also arrested James Cruickshank who pleaded guilty and paid a total of $13.25. Officer Carle took in Peter Kennedy who pleaded guilty to a second offense and was fined $10 and costs of $9.94.

Three years ago today the Vaughan store opened its doors in this city. During these years the business of that enterprising dry goods dealer has been steadily growing, necessitating the enlargement of the store. A short time ago an addition was built giving nearly a third more room. A suit and cloak department has been added on the second floor. Recently a new cash carrier system has been installed, insuring quick service to the patrons of the store. The Vaughan store is celebrating this anniversary this week and invites you to call.

Pennant Brand

CORN

Four cans for a quarter. That is really a ridiculously low price for such nice Corn as the Pennant Brand, which is the equal of any Corn on the market. It contains no shreds of husks or pieces of the cob, such as are found in cheap canned Corn. Remember, the price is four cans for only twenty-five cents.
